Dear Sir,

We wish to inform you that, one of the consumer from Chennai has filed writ petition challenging TANGEDCO levy on compensation charges for exceeding the harmonics dumping limit set by CEA and the amount has been included in the CC Bill. This writ was filed by our Legal Advisor in Chennai seeking to quash the charges and also a direction to TANGEDCO to await clarification by CERC.

The basis of the challenge is on the same grounds that TECA has filed before CERC. This petition is heard on 4th August 2014.

The Hon'ble High Court has granted an Interim Injunction on condition that the Petitioner deposits 25 per cent of the compensation charges for harmonics dumping by 8th August 14.

We have requested our legal advisor to procure the copy of this order from High Court Registry. As soon as we receive we will send the same for our members' reference.

How ever the members who have received similar bill and interested to file writ petition before High court may contact TECA office at the earliest.

The professional fees and filing fees will be 30,000/-.

With Warm Regards,

D Balasundaram
President
